

More Converts Every Year

Every day in every year that comes, more housewives are giving up their exorbitant priced Baking Powders and turning to K C, the honest and reliable, which has stood so well the test of years. They are finding out that costs one-third the price of powder anywhere near K C quality, and makes better, purer, more healthful baking.

KC BAKING POWDER

25 Ounces for 25 Cents

SHOULD HAVE SLEEP OUT.

Writer Objects to Custom of Arousing Children Early.

Dr. Woods Hutchinson, writing of Sleep in the American Magazine, criticizes boarding schools sharply for getting young people up too early in the morning. He says: "A baby or young child should have absolutely every minute of sleep that it can be induced to take, and sleeplessness is even more emphatically a sign of disease in children than in adults. The necessity and capacity for large amounts of refreshing sleep persists up to adult life and the amount required seldom falls below ten hours before the eighteenth or twentieth year. To make children or rapidly growing young adults get up before they have had their sleep out, and feel thoroughly rested, is not merely irrational but cruel, and when it is done as a routine practice at boarding schools, or other institutions, by those who pretend to be fitted to have the care of children it is little short of criminal."

One Cause of Drowning.

Renewed attention has been called to the probable explanation of many cases of drowning that was some years ago advanced by Dr. Lowrie, a British physician, as a result of his own experience. After cycling on a hot day, he took a swim in cold water, and was soon seized with headache, dizziness and drowsiness, while muscular effort became feeble and sluggish. In many similar cases, he believes, the swimmer loses consciousness—or faints—from cerebral anemia. If there is no help near, the result is another drowning accident, and the report of it will probably state that the victim "was seized with cramps and sank." Swimming in cold water is dangerous if the circulation is weakened from any cause, especially after a fast of several hours, or if there is any heart trouble.

Hand Weaving by Cripples.

Consul Albert Halstead reports that a number of charitable people in Birmingham about five years ago started a small hand-loom factory to provide a useful and remunerative employment for crippled girls. Many of the delicate fabrics are artistically hand woven in silk, serge and flax, and the results are most attractive. The product of the factory, which is also a school in hand weaving, is acquiring a reputation for artistic merit and quality, and the enterprise is now paying its way. It seems to the consul as if this Birmingham charity should be of interest to people in the United States who desire to help in making cripples self-supporting and at the same time in procuring textiles of an attractive kind.

Three Certain Truths.

If the Bible had never been written there are still three things that the universe has stamped indelibly on the mind of man, wherever the Bible prevails and wherever it does not. Those three things are the idea of God, the conviction of moral accountability, the belief in a life beyond the grave. It is the glory of our English Bible and it is the glory of the Christian religion that they have expressed and embodied these fundamental inescapable ideas in a way that transcends all other records and all other incarnations of truth.

The Need for Companionship.

There is a wise old German saying that "Only a god or a brute can dwell in solitude." Men and women need congenial companionship, both for the sake of health and happiness. There is such a thing as mental as well as physical hunger. Women on lonely farms and in small villages grow morbid and mildly insane, and people do not guess that the cause is want of companionship.—Woman's Life.

One Girl's View of Beauty.

"Beauty in some ways is a handicap," she said, slowly. "Do you know, Jerry, that it seems to me almost as humiliating to be loved for one's beauty as for one's money. And it gives false values for a short time. Money, after all, doesn't vanish like one's good looks, with years. How is one to know what one will have left when one's beauty goes?"—The Century.

INTERRED IN STRANGE STYLE.

Man Who Wanted Books in His Coffin—Burial Robe of Scarlet Silk.

Sir James Colquhoun, whose recently proved will contains a direction that his body should be dressed for burial in evening costume, was one of many men who have made unconventional arrangements for their interment, says the Westminster Gazette. One of the most singular of these testamentary directions was that of John Underwood, of Whittlesea, whose body, fully dressed, was placed in a green coffin. Under his head was placed a copy of Horace, his feet rested on Bentley's "Milton." Bentley's "Horace" was placed beneath his back, and on his right and left were a third Horace and a Greek Testament. Mrs. Margaret Cousins, of Cuxton, in Kent, made her last journey attired in a flaming dress of scarlet silk; and a coal hewer, of Tong, near Leeds (one Jack Hustler), was laid to rest with his head pillowed on a lump of coal and with his pipe and tobacco by his side.

The Art of Happiness.

The art of happiness consists in being pleased with little things. People with great wealth or great power are seldom happy. The leaders of the world, great men or great women, are seldom satisfied. The society leader, with millions at her command and the homage of many men and women, rarely knows the happiness that comes unasked to the young wife or mother in humbler circles. The possession of money decreases the power of enjoyment. A child gets more pleasure out of a sixpenny toy than a millionaire does from a thousand-pound yacht. Sixpence has greater value to the child than a thousand has to the millionaire. The joys of life belong to the little people—the quiet men and women who are satisfied to live their own lives and make little mark on the lives of others. It is in the power of the least of us to be happy and to make others so.

Certainly Irish.

The rocking chair brigade were discussing death and burial, their minds having been directed thereto by the passing of a funeral through the village street. Each one paused sufficiently long in her knitting to describe the kind of burial she would like, and the place where she would like to be buried. A recent but popular comer, who is suspected of having been born in the Emerald Isle, waxed enthusiastic over the cemetery plot which she had bought for herself; she described the beautiful flowers she had already planted and the instructions she had given to the cemetery gardener. She had gotten everything in readiness, and could die at any time, knowing her grave would be all right. "Why," she wound up, "when I die all I have to do is to walk out there."

Nicknames of American Cities.

A purely western designation is that of Duluth as the Zenith City of the Unsalted Seas, given to it from its situation at the head of the waters of Lake Superior. Another city which derives its name from its situation is North Adams, Mass., called the Tunnel City, from the fact that it is at one end of that "great bore," the Hoosac tunnel, which was so many years in course of construction until its length of about four miles was completed. Pekin, Ill., rejoices in the title of the Celestial City, from the fact that it was named for the capital of the Chinese empire. Racine, Wis., is known as the Bell City, from the nature of the articles made there. The Shoe City is Lowell, Mass., for a like reason, as is Holyoke, in the same state, the Paper City.

Literary Note.

"What's the matter?" asked the proprietor of the book store, seeing all the clerks hurrying toward the front. "There's a lady there who wants to buy a volume of poems," the book-keeper called back as he hurried forward to have a look at her.

The Contraries of Speech.

"Cannot I help you at this trying time?" asked the cook's admirer. "No," replied the cook, "for this is my hour of knead." And she forthwith proceeded to work the dough.

Letter List.

The following letters remained un-called for at the Lexington postoffice on Saturday Nov. 2, 1907.

Mrs. Captain Cowick, Eldon P. Cole, Jas. Caslett, J. A. Davis, Mrs. Matte Hughes, Timp Hay, Miss Louisa Irving, W. A. Kenan, Albert S. Under, Frank Stroessner, J. J. Taylor, Miss Anna Votch, Mrs. Sarah Waltes, Mabel Wilson, P. C. Williams, Miss Manula Williams, Miss Harriet E. Yates, L. B. Snoddy, Rev and Mrs. J. M. Spencer.

When calling for these letters please say they were advertised.

DELIA CROWDER, Postmaster.

H. Sinauer was in Kansas City Thursday on business.

Ed Price, who has just quit the Parker Ames meet company, came in Thursday to spend a vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Price.

Mrs. G. H. Swift arrived from Kansas City Thursday evening for a visit with her sister, Mrs. A. Megenty.

W. W. Graham from south of Higgsville had business in Lexington Thursday.

John Berry, the Chapel Hill stock raiser, was in town yesterday.

Mrs. Nancy Davis Shelby of Kansas City arrived Thursday evening for a visit with the family of Col. S. J. Huston.

Mrs. J. A. Howe returned to Topeka, Kans., Friday morning after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Gus Weber in this city.

The Doom of Bridge.

A reaction against bridge appears to be getting in in English society. It is even becoming common to hear people declare that they do not play, and the younger set is making a stand against it. In its stead billiards seems to be gaining ground.—N. Y. Tribune.

New York Women Workers.

In Greater New York alone half a million girls and women are partly or wholly self-supporting. Half a million women, or one-fifth of the population, are under business and not domestic influence.

Censorious World.

"A man is liable not to get much credit in this world," said Uncle Eben. "If you're prosperous dey'll mos' likely say you has mo' luck dan sense, an' if you's unprosperous dey'll say you didn't hab much of either."

The Fool and His Laughs.

"The fool," wrote Burne-Jones in one of his letters, "has three laughs. He laughs at what is good, he laughs at what is bad and he laughs at what he does not understand."

Would You Hold Friendship?

The sunny-hearted, sweet-tempered people are the ones who hold their friends. Bitterness and gloom will drive every one away from you.

(Continued from 1st page)

who brought the ball to Warrensburg's thirty-yard line. On the first play they punted to Moore, who brought the ball to the forty-five yard line. After two plays for losses, Moore punted outside at the twenty-yard line. On the first play, the Normalites punted to Roberts on the fifty-yard line and he brought the ball back thirty yards. Cook went around Kelly for eighteen yards, and then Moore plowed through for a touchdown. Roberts failed to kick goal.

The second score was made after the most spectacular play ever seen here. Warrensburg kicked off, and, aided by a fifteen-yard penalty, got the ball on Wentworth's thirty-five yard line. An end run made by Miller and a series of plunges soon took the oval for Wentworth's two yard line. The Soldiers' forwards then braced up and held like a stone wall for two downs.

On the third down the two teams stacked up again and then Owens emerged from the mass and ran the length of the field. Miller, the fast Warrensburg quarterback, took after him and gained rapidly until past the central chalk line. Then Owens swerved from his course and Miller fell to the ground in a heap. Moore kicked goal. Shortly afterwards the cadets scored again. Warrensburg kicked off and by several exchanges of punts and a fifteen-yard penalty Wentworth got the ball to Normal's twenty-yard line. After two ineffectual line plays, Moore made an easy field goal from placement. Warrensburg received the next kickoff and by two end runs returned the ball to the center of the field. Just before time was called Miller and Kelly executed a brilliant forward pass for twenty-five yards.

Time was called with the ball in possession of the Normals on Wentworth's thirty-yard line. Gooch and Asbury, two of Normal's stars, were out of the game. The Cadets were in much better physical condition than their opponents. The lineup:

WEST	ORTH	NORMALS
Chambers	R E	Kelly
Anderson II	R T	Cooke
Blake, Welsh I	R G	Daly
McPherson	C	Tanner
Ahrens	L G	Pahman
Littlefield	L T	Garnett
Hoge	L E	Carey, Barnes
Roberts	Q B	Miller
Cook	R H	Bacon
Owens And'en I	L H	Harrison
Moore, Capt.	F B	Ross, Capt.
Referee—Masker, K. C. A. C.		Umpire—Wiant, K. C. A. C.
Field Judge—urnutt, Normals, Touchdowns—Moore, Owens, Field goal—Moore, Goal—Moore.

Owl Club Dance.

The members of the Owl club enjoyed a delightful masquerade dance at Turner hall Thursday evening. Some of the costumes were unique and gorgeous and every one present had a good time.

A NEW LOT OF SUITS

We just received another shipment of Ladies' Suits. This shipment is one of the most complete we have been able to get and can now show suits of most desirable character and style.

Blue or Black Broadcloth Suits nicely tailored	$15.00
Short Jackets
Blue, Brown, Black and Fancy Mixture, in Broadcloth and panama. Long and short jackets splendidly Tailored. A big assortment at this price	$20.00
Fancy Suits and Black cloth Suits in several styles. Garments that are really worth $25.00.	$22.50
Black Serge, Blue, Brown and Black Broadcloth and Fancy Mixture Suits. Elegantly made and splendid values	$25.00
Red, Blue, Black and Brown broadcloth suits. Trimmed stylishly, with braid and buttons	$30.00
Extra Fine Quality Black broadcloth with full pleated skirt. Handsomely trimmed Jacket	$35.00

FREDENDALL & WILSON

Public Sale

THOROUGHbred

Poland-Chinas

40-Head-40

Monday, Nov. 11, 1907.

Fall Yearlings—Spring Pigs.

29 Boars and 11 Gilts.

Concert and Lunch at 12 o'clock

Sale Begins at 1 o'clock Sharp.

7.1-2 miles Southeast Lexington, 4 mi. North of Mayview

A. P. Young.

J. W. SPARKS, Auctioneer.

Public Sale

Having decided to quit farming we will sell at our farm 3 miles south-east of Lexington on the Salt Pond road on

Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1907
At 10:00 a. m.

One family mare in foal, 9 year old.	One steel rake, new.
One 4 year old Ashbrook mare.	One Black Hawk corn planter.
Two 1 year old draft fillies.	One cultivator.
One Ashbrook filly, one year old past.	One lister.
One draft colt, one trotting bred colt.	One go devil.
Two four year old cows, good milch cows.	One stalk cutter.
Two calves.	One steel saw.
Some fine Duroc Jersey brood sows.	One 12-inch plow.
Twenty-one shoats.	One roller.
Two farm wagons.	One hay frame.
One good buggy.	One spring wagon.
One new McCormick mower.	One new cider mill.
	Three barrels of apple vinegar.
	One hog dipping tank.
	One deboning chute and saw.
	One set carriage harness and of farm harness.

A lot of Carpenter and tiling tools, household and kitchen furniture and many other things too numerous to mention.

Terms made known on day of sale
LUNCH ON GROUNDS.

J. W. and W. H. White

COL. G. A. HART, Auctioneer.

THE CLEAN MEAT MARKET.

The cleanest and very fine belonging to a First Class Meat Market. Cleanliness Quality, just weight, and the best of everything found here.

SEITER'S MARKET